Comments Report

6. Open Response:

6.1) What are the strengths of this course?

- PowerPoint presentations, the lecture videos, the study guides, the extra videos that pertain to the subject at hand. The professor himself.

6.2) What changes would you recommend that would improve this course?

- I am a returning student, and I can say that he can't improve on anything.

6.3) Any further, constructive comments?

- This course is challenging, and it forces the student to really grasp the material and I love that. I have learned so much because of Mr. James and I can't imagine him not teaching this course. His class has helped me with my other classes to reason things out. He needs a raise.
