Comments Report

6. Open Response:

^{6.1)} What are the strengths of this course?

- The strengths of this course is Professor Rey. The course was new so it was nice to have a professor that understood that the course wasn't fully tried and tested. He would work with the class to make assignments less confusing and was available a lot.

^{6.2)} What changes would you recommend that would improve this course?

- More clear instructions on assignment that are difficult

^{6.3)} Any further, constructive comments?

- As this was a new class I'm sure there will be improvement and there is nothing else to say but that Professor Rey is a great professor.
