6.3) Any further, constructive comments?

- None
- Prior to the start of the semester I purchased the book that I was instructed to buy for this course. When the semester started the instructor had the incorrect textbook and it was confusing to do lessons. Would have been more clear if we were seeing the same lessons and examples. Also the instructor had never updated the D2L from last year and still had all of last years units visible. If the D2L was organized, updated and followed each week of the semester I would have felt more comfortable with taking this course. Instead it felt very uncoordinated and confusing.
