Comments Report

6. Open Response:

- 6.1) What are the strengths of this course?
- I really, really enjoyed this course! The professor made every lesson fun and very engaging while still being very informative and professional. The work was also well distributed so I never felt stressed; in fact, quite the opposite! The professor made this class such a welcoming and fun environment that I never felt myself getting stressed or overwhelmed with the class or its work. I would highly recommend this class to anyone at BC.
- The history of theater and acting.
- The lectures are amazing, they're very engaging. The group work is also extremely relevant to the classwork.
- 6.2) What changes would you recommend that would improve this course?
- I can't think of anything!
- This class had frequent, if not daily (during class periods, of course) group work requirements, where students would get together in small teams and execute some task that put them in the role of someone in a theatre production. I enjoyed these exercises, but I do wish there could have been an available option to do equivalent work on my own. I'm autistic and at some points can have social anxiety that can prevent me from being able to fully engage with the exercise, which can be stressful to me and unfair to my partner(s) having the option to do the work in a more comfortable space would have been great.
