Comments Report

6. Open Response:

6.1) What are the strengths of this course?

- Instructor is concise, lectures are easy to understand and follow, instructor is responsive to questions.
- Mr. Payne's passion for the subject and his extreme attention to detail when creating his lectures and lessons.
- This course has several strengths. The professor is the best instructor I have ever had at Brazosport College. The workload is perfect, and the professor allows you to work ahead and finish the course early if you wish. There are instructional videos, notes, exam reviews, and discussions that are very helpful when it comes to retaining the information in our long-term memory.

6.2) What changes would you recommend that would improve this course?

- No changes needed
- To improve the learning experience, I suggest incorporating more opportunities for discussions in the course. Personally, I find that engaging in discussions after reading helps me to better understand and retain the material.
- none

6.3) Any further, constructive comments?

- Out of all 5 instructors that I've had this year, Mr. Payne is by far the best!
- Throughout this course, I have had an incredible learning experience. The lessons were engaging and informative, and I feel that I have grown both personally and professionally as a result of taking this class. I am grateful for the opportunity to have been a part of it.
