- Donald Payne

6. Open Response:

- ^{6.1)} What are the strengths of this course?
- Nothing. I learned nothing. I think the biggest strength this class has, is, that there isn't a massive work load
- Open discussion and great lectures.
- The course has relatively easy assignments with very clear instructions. The lecture videos with fill in note pages are helpful to learning so much information in a short period of time.
- The professor makes the class interesting. Professor Rey treats you with a lot of respect and has genuine conversations. He knows a lot so you learn so much from being in his class.
- The workload was distributed in a fashion that made it easier to complete on time.
- you can do it on your own time and schedule
- ^{6.2)} What changes would you recommend that would improve this course?
- I think making students turn in their notes for a grade would actually make them pay attention to the lecture and learn something important
- I would recommend adjusting the quizzes and exams to include more of the information we learned in class through the lecture videos.
- I wouldn't change nothing, His class is fun!
