6. Open Response:

6.1) What are the strengths of this course?

- I learned how to study and understand poetry in this course. It helped me to read and find the true meaning of poetry and literature.
- The professor communicates clearly and is very understanding. The instructions are clear as well.
- The teacher is very engaged, very helpful, always provided extra info and help as needed, and made learning so much fun. I struggled so bad in my Comp 1301, I barely passed, but working with this teacher, my writing in general and written communication has definitionally improved. I will recommend this teacher to my daughter who will need to take this class next year. (Well or any student really)
- Variety of assignments, variety of educational material

6.2) What changes would you recommend that would improve this course?

- I honestly can not think of any. Tey assignments are great, and through provoking.
- NA
- No recommendations. This professor is amazing at teaching and communicating!
- None

6.3) Any further, constructive comments?

- Great teacher, thank you all for picking a good one!
- NA
- None
- Nope, by far he is the best professor I have had. I had several college conferences and got sick, yet he was understanding and actually cares for his students.
