Comments Report

6. Open Response:

6.1) What are the strengths of this course?

- It offers a modern popular topic for people to take their literature class on which makes it more interesting.

6.2) What changes would you recommend that would improve this course?

- I think the map activity with WWZ could be expanded into a larger activity/project if you have the time. I would have liked to be able to map that out more and see where the locations were.

6.3) Any further, constructive comments?

- The format has been very good. The readings were related to the topic. The class discussions and small group discussions have been interesting and helped to see other viewpoints. The cooldown is a neat way to get constant feedback from the class and to see where everyone is at.
