Comments Report

6. Open Response:

- <sup>6.1)</sup> What are the strengths of this course?
- The course had plenty of ways to see the material and follow it.
- The material is presented in D2L and no textbook is required. You also have a few opportunities for extra credit by attending Library events hosted by Mr. Brent Cooper.
- The strength of this course is the amount of material posted to help pass the final exam. Jones posts a study guide, which he is not required to do, which is very helpful to students who really want to pass the class. The other positive of this class is the time, I don't have to spend much time on this class because the material he posts is enough to pass the exams.
- <sup>6.2)</sup> What changes would you recommend that would improve this course?
- I was honestly pretty overwhelmed. The test anxiety I had with someone watching my every move was unnerving.
- I would have liked more visuals (diagrams, charts, pictures) to help me grasp the information.
- I would not change anything.
- <sup>6.3)</sup> Any further, constructive comments?
- I felt pretty overwhelmed with the amount of material I was having to absorb. I realize there is a lot to cover but all the numbers/dates was a lot to take in and try to memorize.
- N/A
- The helpful course stays accurate with World History taught by David Sysma.
