- Dr. Joel Quiros

6. Open Response:

6.1) What are the strengths of this course?

- Being able to have two attempts on the quizzes and having bonus points added to an exam when attending SI lectures.
- I like that the flexibility of this course as it is mostly reading on my part.
- Instructor answers questions and explains subject well.
- It is a easy course that doesn't have much homework.
- Mrs. Pritchett gave told us how to do well in this course, and provided all the resources we needed. She explained everything thoroughly and truly cares about her students.
- The assignments are not very difficult and all come straight from the book. The quizzes that we complete are very helpful with our exams.
- The assignments are straightforward and there are extra credit opportunities.

6.2) What changes would you recommend that would improve this course?

- I would not make any changes to this course.
- I would say add more information to D2L
- No, this course has been the best one I've taken at BC.
- None at this time
- Nothing. Great instructor.

6.3) Any further, constructive comments?

- None.
- The professor seems a little frazzled at time with mistakes being common. Although every mistake was always fixed within a timely manner with an email informing us that it was fixed.
