Comments Report

6. Open Response:

- <sup>6.1)</sup> What are the strengths of this course?
- Clear, well-defined deliverables and execution timeline.
- Teaches you the history and past of the U.S. and leaves you with knowledgeable information.
- The professor has lecture videos which are great.
- This class is amazing. Assignments are perfectly spaced out to not overwhelm the students. Professor grades in a exceptional amount of time WITH feedback. Thank you!
- <sup>6.2)</sup> What changes would you recommend that would improve this course?
- I don't recommend any changes.
- Instructor seemed fixated on race throughout the course, almost to the exclusion of any other major accomplishments/events in history. As a person who has made conscious choice chosen to have an integrated family (He is Caucasian with Caucasian birth children who has adopted/sponsored black children, it often felt that he was projecting his own ideas about race and racism onto the class). It felt at times that the instructor was projecting his morality opinion of a few more than he was teaching the history of many.
- No changes should be needed
- <sup>6.3)</sup> Any further, constructive comments?
- Stick to the historical facts and leave the psychology to the class intended to address that specific topic.
