6. Open Response:

6.1) What are the strengths of this course?

- Allowing students enough time to get all assignments complete. Providing feedback and explanation on graded assignments.
- How it is very well laid out, how the instructor seems to really take the college students schedule into consideration
- I really enjoyed writing the essays, and I felt like the workload wasn't too much. I also really appreciated that my professor made it clear what she wanted our papers to be structured, especially because I didn't really know off the top of my head how to write some of them.
- The albitites to work at your own pace and get feed back from other students.
- The strengths of this course are the easy workload. We can thoroughly go through the material in plenty of time before assignments are due.
- The strengths of this course would be the amount of information and aid that the professor provides for me. The professor provides zoom meetings and extra information in order to understand the course more. I have enjoyed it so far.
- This course followed the syllabus and I enjoyed the assignments.
- This course has a lot of strengths. I like that it helps you become a better writer and learn about our Humanities.

6.2) What changes would you recommend that would improve this course?

- I have no ideas in mind that would improve this course. Thank you for your hard work.
- I would not change anything about this course it has helped me with my busy work schedule.
- I wouldn't change anything about this course considering I enjoyed the way the class was constructed.
- More variety and explanation on learned content.
- None, this course was very comfortable
- Nothing.
- The responses on the assignments could be a little more detailed, being that they are a bit vague, and sometimes confusing, but overall, good job!

6.3) Any further, constructive comments?

- I enjoy the way the class has been taught. The professor gives relevant and detailed explanations about assignments and I usually have no questions regarding an assignment. I am able to find the information I need under the Content that she provides.
- I love this course it is amazing.
- N/A.
- No, I do not have any further constructive comments.
- This Professor is one of few I've had who I feel truly CARE about what they're teaching and are passionate about it.
She keeps up constant communication with students and seems to really care that we learn and how we are. That feels REALLY good.

I myself got very sick around the time of the midterm and I was nearly in tears thinking she would not believe me or not work with me about it. Not only did she respond to my email extra timely, but she told me to put my health first. This professor is a gem.
