6. Open Response:

6.1) What are the strengths of this course?

- I would say that the best part about this class is that I am able to move at my own pace, and my professor is always helping me no matter what area of the course I'm talking about.

- It gave me a lot of time to complete assignments

- Not really sure. I love the gollden era when things were first being established. How the book unfoldeed humans.

- Not very strict and encouraged critical thinking and different perspective.

- There isn't a large workload, and the professor is very understanding and tries to give extra credit when possible.

6.2) What changes would you recommend that would improve this course?

- A little more specified on the assignments. I was confused at first when the syllabus only had around 5 assignments. I was nervous I was missing and assignment pretty much all the time.

- N/A

- None

- Set more reminders of when assignments due

- To improve this course, I would recommend offering additional learning resources for students.
