^{5.1)} Your instructor will appreciate any comments you have concerning the course or his/her teaching.

- I love chamber choir! It is fun and challenging, and we all learn a lot in this class. A lot is expected of us, which is good and pushes us to work outside of class hours and improve every day! Mr. May is always willing to meet our needs and give any help or guidance needed to each individual. In addition, it is clear that he loves what he does, which makes the class experience even better. I would definitely recommend this class to a fellow student at BC!
- I've been taking this course for a while now and I still love it a lot. I've been able to sing a wide range of music, stretched my singing abilities, and made a lot of memories. I only wish the course could be just a little bit longer, like a full-length class (1 hour 15 minutes).
