6. Open Response:

6.1) What are the strengths of this course?

- Grades are entered in a very timely manner.
- I like doing the discussion questions a lot. It is fun to talk with friends about the lesson for that week.
- I like that the notes are the exact things on the activity.
- I liked that it was hybrid and I didn't have to go anywhere because it was at my school. I liked that the teacher was polite to us and was genuinely interested in helping us to succeed.
- I manage to learn a lot more then I expected.
- It teaches you many useful things that you can use in life
- My professor makes learning easy and makes it interesting. It doesn't feel like you are learning things you don't want to, it is engaging.
- The strength of the class is the freedom and flexibility that this class gives
- The strengths of this course are learning time management.
- To help me prepare for college and life.
- Workload is spread across the week and we are given opportunities to work on our school work.

6.2) What changes would you recommend that would improve this course?

- Having them every school day instead of just two.
- I don't find it interesting
- I wouldn't change really anything except being notified that we have work.
- I'd say its overall pretty good and doesn't need that many changes.
- Just less computer stuff and more in person activity's
- More assignments done physically instead of electronically.
- less paragraphs needed
- none
