Comments Report

6. Open Response:

6.1) What are the strengths of this course?

- Dr Li prepared this class very well. She provided numerous resources to aid with this class. She was readily available if we needed any assistance.
- I like learning the concepts of how supply chain/operations are linked, and lately we have been reviewing on what and how the critical path is assumed and calculated on a project schedule.
- The material covered gives a good feel for the subject matter
- The material used is good and very helpful, the instructor is always willing to help and super responsive, she is an amazing instructor. The instructor is on top of things and always gives good feedback.

6.2) What changes would you recommend that would improve this course?

- Add more visual examples for the math problems, maybe solve some and guide us through excel to see how to do it.
- I have none. Course is good, and the instructor provides good help.
- Making it longer than 8 weeks
- No changes at all. I think this was a perfect balance of workload and prepared material.

6.3) Any further, constructive comments?

- I really appreciate the feedback. Still a new concept to me to hear from my professors, but very impactful.
