6. Open Response:

6.1) What are the strengths of this course?

- I worked at my own pace at times I would look ahead and see what our next assignment was going to be and I was able to work on them until the assignment was officially open to the class which leads me and helped me be more prepared like I like to be.
- N/A
- The pace of learning fits the timing of the class work load.
- Very clear objectives and well supported material. The book was a great choice as it has been very relevant to our learnings and applicability within most careers today.
- lots of material referent for my current job, very informational.
- the course layout

6.2) What changes would you recommend that would improve this course?

- Better instructions regarding discussion at the beginning of the semester
- Get rid of team projects, they are great in the classroom but very difficult in the online setting, especially younger students, they tend to be very irresponsible and do not do the work, besides, as a fulltime employee I already have the experience of teamwork and collaboration via Teams and zoom. The reason we take these online classes is because we do not have time to go to school. What makes you think that we have the time to be chasing after classmates or doing the work for them so we can get the project completed? GET RID OF THE TEAM PROJECTS so we can work at our pace. Our lives are stressful enough as they are to have to deal with this type of activity. Have a paper book available not the online one only.
- I like the class layout and don't think I would change the course in any way
- N/A
- Not much, really

6.3) Any further, constructive comments?

- Dr. Mirabi has been very vocal and helpful on how to better cover topics. He has been prompt with his responses and feedback. This course has been a well-paced, very thorough and helpful course.
- Enjoyed taking this course.
- Good Professor my comments are small changes.
