

English 0201 Course Syllabus

Professor: Emily Arthur

COURSE OBJECTIVES

This course is a study of reading and writing in the Accelerated Learning Program. This course provides students with supplementary support while taking ENGL 1301: Composition and Rhetoric I. Enrollment is limited to students who are TSI liable. Credit hours: 2. Corequisite: ENGL 1301 Composition and Rhetoric I.

TEXTBOOKS

NA

EVALUATION

- 50% attendance (absences not to exceed 20% of the course)
- 50% participation (missing submissions or activities not to exceed 3 items)

GRADE DISTRIBUTION

- 50% attendance (absences not to exceed 20% of the course)
- 50% participation (missing submissions or activities not to exceed 3 items)

100%

Week	Agenda
1	Orientation, reading support, annotating support
2	Organizing ideas, the paragraph, the thesis support
3	The writing process, developing body paragraphs and extending ideas, support
4	First assignment support
5	Drafting support
6	Grammar basics and revision support
7	Using quotations support
8	The works cited page support
9	Assignment support
10	Assignment and reading support
11	Email support
12	Reading support
13	Presentation support

14	Revision support
15	Final assignment support
16	Final assignment support