Academic Honesty:

Brazosport College assumes that students eligible to perform on the college level are familiar with the ordinary rules governing proper conduct including academic honesty. The principle of academic honesty is that all work presented by you is yours alone. Academic dishonesty including, but not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, and collusion shall be treated appropriately. Please refer to the Brazosport College Student Guide for more information. This is available online at <http://www.brazosport.edu>.

Academic dishonesty violates both the policies of this course and the Student Code of Conduct. In this class, any occurrence of academic dishonesty will be referred to the Dean of Student Services for prompt adjudication. Sanctions may be imposed beyond your grade in this course by the Dean of Student Services.

Students with Disabilities:

Brazosport College is committed to providing equal education opportunities to every student. BC offers services for individuals with special needs and capabilities including counseling, tutoring, equipment, and software to assist students with special needs. Please contact Phil Robertson, Special Populations Counselor, 979-230-3236 for further information.

Title IX Statement:

Brazosport College faculty and staff are committed to supporting students and upholding the College District's non-discrimination policy. Under Title IX and Brazosport College's policy FFDA (Local), discrimination based on sex, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression is prohibited. If you experience an incident of discrimination, we encourage you to report it. While you may talk to a faculty or staff member at BC, please understand that they are "Responsible Employees" and must report what you tell them to college officials. You can also contact the Title IX Coordinators directly by using the contact information below. ## 1302 Online Policies

Attendance:	Calculated by number of log-in's and interactions with actionable items in each module.
Missed Assignments:	If you fail to submit an assignment before the close date of the module it was assigned in, then you will not be allowed to submit the assignment. Modules cannot be reopened no matter the reason.
Late Paper:	A paper can be up to one week late without loss of points. If it is late then the comments on the paper will be minimal. If it is 2 weeks late then it will be marked one grade lower, and so on. This does not apply to the last essay, which must be submitted on time.
Bad Behavior:	Treat your classmates and your instructor with professional respect. Any instance of disruptive behavior will result in deductions to your attendance and participation mark.
Technology:	The school facilitates access to Wi-Fi and computers to let you complete all work for this class. If you choose to use your own technology to meet the class assignments then it is your responsibility to get the assignment to me. Every submitted assignment must be verified by you for successful submission. Please let me know if you cannot verify if you have submitted an assignment. All submission issues must be resolved before the end of module 2.

Academic Honesty: Academic dishonesty violates both the policies of this course and the student code of conduct. In this class, any occurrence of academic dishonesty will be referred to the Dean of Student Services for prompt adjudication, and will, at a minimum, result in an F in the assignment. Sanctions may be imposed beyond your grade in this course by the Dean of Student Services.

Plagiarism: Any instance of intentional plagiarism will result in a zero for the assignment and will be reported to the Dean of Student Services.
